

PART TWO:

LOVE

In Part One, I explained in, hopefully, simple to understand words, how My Love, Jesus, Is both Man and God. I also explained how My Love, Jesus, exercised the virtues of faith and hope in His earthly life.

In this writing, Part Two, I will, hopefully, explain in simple to understand words, how My Love, Jesus, exercised the virtue of love, particularly, through His Suffering and Sacrificial Death on The Cross. I will also explain a bit about the workings of Our Lady and The Holy Spirit in the Divine Plan of God. I sincerely hope that The Holy Spirit will be with me, as I attempt to explain these matters. God bless us all!

I return to this passage in Holy Scripture. I will now focus on the words of St. Paul, "he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross." This is the true meaning of Love.

Book of Philippians Chapter 2, Verses 5-8

"Have among yourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross."

*

*

*

As I have shared before, I suffer from schizophrenia, which is a severe mental illness. It became manifest during the same time that I converted to God and returned to the Catholic faith. One night, early on in my illness, I was having a particularly hard time. satan was attacking me day and night, and the demonic voices and daily nightmares were relentless.

On that night, I was praying earnestly before a Crucifix that I had high on my bedroom wall. Although I knew myself to be in my bedroom, in my spirit, I imagined myself two thousand years ago, standing before The Cross, at the Crucifixion of Christ. And as I stood there, before Jesus Crucified, I said to Jesus, with tears streaming down my face, "My God, You suffered and died for everyone, but You forgot about one, me..."

I have always considered that my lowest, most shameful moment of my journey in the faith. Here, I was, an ungrateful, little soul, telling Jesus as He hung dying on The Cross, that He did not suffer enough and forgot about me in His universal Love for everyone. I abandoned Jesus on The Cross.

Afterwards, I would reflect about that moment a lot, mortified that I had said those words to God. But, I think many others would understand my situation, especially, those who have severe mental illnesses and have had severe hardships in life. It is hard to keep up with the struggles in life and at times, such struggles can seem overwhelming. And many people have felt at one time or another, that they have been abandoned by God. That they are unloved and unlovable.

In my study of The Locutions (<http://www.locutions.org>), there was one particular message from Our Lady that really affected me and moved my heart to deep tears. It brought the Love of God immediately home to my soul. It is the Locution of July 24, 2013, which is titled "Explaining Jesus' Defeat of Satan." It is a long message, which should be read in its entirety, and I have attached it to the end of this writing. However, I want to reflect with you all, parts of that Locution, so that you may grow in your faith, hope and love of God.

Our Lady begins by sharing these words:

"Jesus' final and complete victory began in the Garden of Gethsemane. There, he asked his heavenly Father if it were possible to avoid the Way of the Cross. The Father explained that Jesus had to reach the very stronghold of Satan. Every king, (even Satan) protects his stronghold with guards and gates. As Jesus accepted this task from the Father, namely to invade Satan's central stronghold and engage him in combat, his suffering began. The soldiers, led by Judas, came to arrest him."

Many of us, when we reflect upon the Sufferings and Sacrificial Death of Jesus, we focus on the physical tortures that He endured for our redemption. But, while the physical tortures were great, there was a greater Suffering that He endured for our redemption. Not simply a mental torture, but a true Spiritual Suffering that He endured to free our souls. Our Lady tells us,

"The scourging, the crowning of thorns, the various trials before the Sanhedrin and Pilate, and even the way of the cross were just the preliminary obstacles that Jesus had to go through to reach the central stronghold."

Amazingly, the scourging, crowning of thorns, and the way to Calvary, all these physical tortures, were just obstacles Satan placed before Jesus, to keep Him from invading the deepest part of his evil kingdom, reaching his evil throne. Our Lady shares:

"Only as he was lifted up on the cross, did the mortal combat begin. I was there, not merely as a witness, but to engage in the battle with Jesus. That is why I am the co-redemptrix of the human race."

"How great was that battle – back and forth. One part would be conquered and then a greater Satanic response would be released. Jesus' sufferings continued to escalate as he entered deeper and deeper into the Satanic stronghold. By his fidelity and my cooperation, we finally reached the center of Satan's kingdom."

Now, at this time, I have to take a moment and reflect a bit upon these above words of Our Lady. There are two ponderings that I desire to share with you.

The first pondering is that when I first read these words in this Locution, they deeply penetrated my heart and deeply moved my soul. Only God and Our Lady truly understand the total suffering of every human heart. In my shameful moment, I thought that Jesus Crucified on The Cross could not possibly understand my severe mental sufferings. These mental sufferings, which seemed at times, even worse than a physical suffering, because they were hidden and no one "in the outside world" could understand me and sympathize or empathize with what I was enduring every moment in my life.

Yet, here, Our Lady was revealing to me, that She did understand. That She and Her Son, Jesus, not only understood, but They, too, had endured those same Sufferings for me and all of humanity. I was not forgotten and unloved and unlovable. Our Lady and Our Lord had not only shared in my individual sufferings, but that They had fought the battle for me and won the crown of victory for me. And understanding these profound words in my soul, it moved me to immediate tears of heartfelt gratitude. I was not alone. I was not alone. Our Lady and Our Lord were with me in every mental anguish I suffered. Realizing this true reality in my heart, my spirit became free. I am not alone. God knows me. God loves me. I am lovable.

The second pondering is on the sheer Greatness and Holiness of Our Lady as She fulfilled Her role as Co-Redemptrix of humanity. How great is the role of Our Lady as Our Mother of Sorrows. And how great is Our Lady's Love for all of us, each one of Her children.

As I have written many times, as I discovered through the heavenly messages at Holy Love Ministry (<http://www.holylove.org>), The Hearts of Jesus and His Mother are so United in Divine and Holy Love as to essentially be One. This Sacred Union of The Twin Hearts of Love took place at the Incarnation, when Our Lady gave Her "Fiat" (yes) to God's desire for Her to be the Mother of God. This is supported by the messages from Our Lady in The Locutions (<http://www.locutions.org>). I recall this message in particular:

May 12, 2014

"God is love, an infinite love that always pours forth blessings, like the sun that gives only light. If there is darkness, no one blames the sun. So, if there is evil, no one should blame God."

"Somehow, his love has been blocked, kept out, and unable to enter."

"In his secret plan, the heavenly Father has placed this love in my Immaculate Heart. He has told me, "Mary, go to the world. You will be more than just my messenger. Your heart will carry my love. I have so united your heart with Jesus' heart, that the two hearts are as one. You are so united that it would be more difficult to separate your hearts than to separate the sun from its rays"."

"So, I go everywhere with this great secret of my Immaculate Heart, a mystery kept hidden for centuries but now revealed to a world that is plunging into darkness."

"O mankind, the heavenly Father has united my heart with Jesus' heart. He has surprised Satan, who had no idea that he would be conquered by a Woman. Against my Immaculate Heart, he has no defenses."

"He has not been able to plan for this surprise. He wants my words to be hidden but, by these locutions, I speak openly to the whole world. All is new!"

*

*

*

Yes, Our Lady is Co-Redemptrix of the human race. Our Mother said "yes" to God and His Divine Plan each and every moment of Her life. And She continues to say "yes" to God in Heaven on behalf of each one of us on earth.

It is important to understand that in the Divine Plan of God, every person has free will to decide for God or not every moment of their life. Eternal salvation is a cooperative act between God and His children. God respects the sacrosanct gift of free will that He has bestowed to every son and daughter of Adam. We must cooperate with God in every moment in order to fulfill the Divine Plan that God has for each one of us and for the entire human family.

The Blessed Mother always cooperated with God. It is essential to understand that Our Lady is Co-Redemptrix of the human race, not simply because She cooperated with God at the moment of the Incarnation (Annunciation), but also because She cooperated with God during the Passion of Her Son, Jesus Christ, and during His Crucifixion. The Passion and The Crucifixion was a cooperative act between God and humanity. Our Lady, in Her role as the New Eve, provided the continual "fiat" (yes) for all Her children so Jesus, the New Adam, could fulfill His role as the Messiah for the human race.

Our Lady provided the necessary faith, hope, and love, for Jesus to Conquer Death and for Jesus to Conquer satan forever. The Redemption of humanity by God would not have been possible without Our Lady. Through Her Son, Jesus, Our Lady saved the human race.

The special Locution of Our Lady on July 24, 2013, provides deeper understanding of this true reality. Our Lady continues:

“We were together, our hearts locked together by the greatest human and divine love that has ever existed. Satan did not just confront his Creator but a creature, whom he so much despised.”

“He was surprised that we had penetrated into his great secrecy. He saw his own folly in stirring up the Jewish leaders and in leading Pilate to condemn Jesus. He, by his foolishness, had allowed us to arrive for this mortal combat.”

“Totally dedicated to evil, he again used his great deceptions. He even repeated the temptations in the desert, offering Jesus once more all the kingdoms of the earth. Over these temptations, Jesus had already won his victories. He offered to lessen my sufferings and to make my way easy and light, but I rejected his false offers. I would always be the suffering Mother to bring forth my children.”

As I wrote in Part One, I explained how Jesus is both Man and God. I showed how when Jesus “emptied” Himself of His Heavenly Glory as The Divine Son, to Incarnate in the flesh as a human person, He freely divested Himself of His Divine Wisdom as God. He became a servant of humanity as the Son of Man (son of Adam) and would live a life of holiness on earth. I wrote how Jesus practiced the “virtues of faith, hope and love, as He increased in holy wisdom of God. Just like any other child of Adam.”

The words I wrote in Part One are important to understand, because they will illuminate further what happened to Jesus in His final moments on The Cross. In the Locution, Our Lady reveals,

“Then came the final moment, the ultimate struggle, evidenced by Jesus’ words, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” In his cleverness, he (satan) covered over the light that Jesus had always enjoyed. From the first moment of his conception, Jesus knew that he was the Beloved Son of God. Frequently, as at his Baptism and Transfiguration, the Father had assured Jesus of these special prerogatives. Even in the garden, Jesus knew that he was the Beloved Son.”

“Now, that light was covered over. The Father did not hide himself but Satan, by his great intellect, saw how to cover over the Father’s face.”

“This was darkness, for both Jesus and myself. We had only each other. The darkness was complete and total. Our love for each other was the only light that we enjoyed and we remained embraced in our mutual love until the end. At the end, there seemed to be no faith, nor even hope. Especially, there seemed to be not even love for the Father. All that we knew is that we loved one another. Together, we redeemed the human race. Jesus and I destroyed Satan in the very heart of his stronghold. His kingdom was divided and would not stand."

*Jesus, the Man-God, needed human love to conquer satan at The Cross. In the final moment, satan covered The Face of The Heavenly Father. Jesus as Man-God could not experience the Love that He always shared with His Father. This was possible, because Jesus as The Divine Son of God "emptied" Himself to become mortal man. Just as St. Paul writes, "Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross."

In His humanity, Jesus could not experience the reciprocal Love of God in His final moment on The Cross. But, True Love is something that cannot survive on its own. True Love is something that is mutual and must be shared and exchanged between two persons. So, for Love to truly conquer all evil, Jesus, as God, needed human love to survive. This human love was provided by Our Lady, The Co-Redemptrix, Whose Immaculate Heart Is So United with Her Son's Sacred Heart as to be One and the Same Heart. Free will cooperation between God and mankind.

And because Love survived in the final moment of the Man-God, the Sacrificial Death of Jesus was complete and total, atoning for all sin of the human race, sinner and saint alike, for all-eternity. The Heavenly Father accepted the Sacrifice of His Divine Son for all humanity. God accepted God's Sacrifice for all evil of the human race and opened the Heavenly Kingdom to all those would believe in the atoning gift of The Christ.

satan's kingdom was divided. All evil—every sin—of every human person for all-eternity had been atoned for in Love. Every human soul had the opportunity for the grace of eternal life with God. All the evil of humanity for all time had been split from all the evil committed by satan and his devils in time against humanity. satan's kingdom was divided by Love and thereby conquered by Love. God won.

My Love desires me to write about this passage from Holy Scripture, that I did not understand until now. It is on the unpardonable sin—Blasphemy against The Holy Spirit:

Gospel of Matthew Chapter 12, Verses 31-32

Therefore, I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

*

*

*

How dearly The Heavenly Father Loves His Most Beloved Son, Jesus!! In the deepest, darkest final moment of His Human Life, Jesus, was in need of The Father's Love to overcome death and for evil to be conquered at The Cross. However, The Father knew that His Son, Jesus, would be unable to experience that Love at the very moment He would need It most, due to the cleverness of satan, in hiding The Heavenly Father's Love. And so, foreseeing this pivotal moment, The Father provided a Mother for His Son, Who would carry His Love to His Son. The Heavenly Father placed His Eternal Love in The Immaculate Heart of Our Lady.

At the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady, The Heavenly Father placed His Spirit of Love, The Holy Spirit, in Our Blessed Mother's Heart. And at the Incarnation, The Blessed Mother became forever The Spouse of The Holy Spirit, through Her "Fiat" (yes) to bring forth Divine-Human Life through Her Immaculate Womb. Joined Together forever in a Sacred Oneness that surpasses all spiritual marriages, The Holy Spirit resides and abides in a rich, ever-abundant fullness in The Immaculate Heart of Our Lady.

Yes, it is True. All sins committed against the Man-God will be forgiven, because Jesus atoned for all evil—all sin—of every soul in the human race against The Heavenly Father. The Man-God atoned, through His Sacrificial Death, in His Humanity as son of Adam, all sins committed against God The Father and God The Son.

However, there is no eternal atonement by God for sins committed against The Third Person of The Most Holy Trinity, The Holy Spirit. This is why blasphemy against The Holy Spirit is the unpardonable sin. When a person is illuminated by The Holy Spirit and deliberately turns away from that Light, it is an eternal sin that is unpardonable. This illumination especially happens in the final moment of death.

And this same illumination of conscience will take place on earth as a "Baptism of Truth" in The Great Warning. For some, they may die in shock, in their mortal sins, at this Great Illumination. Others may turn away from God in the hours, days, months, or even years, from this great event. But, if a soul turns away from this action of The Holy Spirit after The Great Warning, their eternal judgment will be confirmed and sealed and becomes unpardonable. This is especially true if a person takes the mark of the beast, because that is a deliberate act of free will against God after The Great Warning.

Through The Great Warning, all souls on earth will know about the pivotal role Our Lady has in the Divine Plan of God as The Women of Genesis and Revelation, The Woman Clothed With The Sun, and the New Eve. A deliberate turning away from this Divine Truth will also be an unpardonable sin. Our Lady is The Spouse of The Holy Spirit. They are One in Spirit and in Truth. The Holy Spirit blesses the works of Our Lady and Is Always with Our Lady. To deny the pivotal role of Our Lady, in the Divine Plan of God for the salvation of humanity, is to deny Truth Itself. Thus, it becomes an unpardonable sin. One cannot make it to Heaven and into the age to come without acknowledging the Queen of Heaven and Their Mother. This is an unescapable fact.

Now, in Part Three, I will write about the New Pentecost and New Springtime meant to come forth to all lovers of Our Lord and Our Lady.

Te Deum laudamus.

("Thee, O God, we praise")

"Explaining Jesus' Defeat of Satan"

July 24, 2013

Mary

"I want to explain the great mysteries of suffering and death. The heavenly Father so loved the first human persons he created that he gave them special gifts, called preternatural. By these powers, they could not suffer or die."

Satan's Envy

"Satan was filled with jealousy and rage because lowly human persons enjoyed these special divine protections. He conceived his plan to bring those first persons away from their very special condition and to bring them into his seduction, filled with sufferings."

"As these human persons, deceived by Satan's lies, followed his promptings, they, too, were plunged into his sufferings. These preternatural gifts were lost. This is now the permanent state of the human race. Every person born into the world is subjected to Satan's sufferings and to death. I will speak now of my own Son's sufferings and death."

Jesus' Sufferings

"During his lifetime, Jesus frequently destroyed human sufferings by his healing actions. For some people, he even reversed the power of death. However, all of these were just partial victories. Satan's kingdom was still safe in the center of his stronghold."

"Jesus' final and complete victory began in the Garden of Gethsemane. There, he asked his heavenly Father if it were possible to avoid the Way of the Cross. The Father explained that Jesus had to reach the very stronghold of Satan. Every king, (even Satan) protects his stronghold with guards and gates. As Jesus accepted this task from the Father, namely to invade Satan's central stronghold and engage him in combat, his suffering began. The soldiers, led by Judas, came to arrest him."

Getting to the Stronghold

"The scourging, the crowning of thorns, the various trials before the Sanhedrin and Pilate, and even the way of the cross were just the preliminary obstacles that Jesus had to go through to reach the central stronghold."

“Only as he was lifted up on the cross, did the mortal combat begin. I was there, not merely as a witness, but to engage in the battle with Jesus. That is why I am the co-redemptrix of the human race.”

“How great was that battle – back and forth. One part would be conquered and then a greater Satanic response would be released. Jesus’ sufferings continued to escalate as he entered deeper and deeper into the Satanic stronghold. By his fidelity and my cooperation, we finally reached the center of Satan’s kingdom.”

Standing Before Satan’s Throne

“We were together, our hearts locked together by the greatest human and divine love that has ever existed. Satan did not just confront his Creator but a creature, whom he so much despised.”

“He was surprised that we had penetrated into his great secrecy. He saw his own folly in stirring up the Jewish leaders and in leading Pilate to condemn Jesus. He, by his foolishness, had allowed us to arrive for this mortal combat.”

Satan’s Futile Attempt

“Totally dedicated to evil, he again used his great deceptions. He even repeated the temptations in the desert, offering Jesus once more all the kingdoms of the earth. Over these temptations, Jesus had already won his victories. He offered to lessen my sufferings and to make my way easy and light, but I rejected his false offers. I would always be the suffering Mother to bring forth my children.”

His Final Tactic

“Then came the final moment, the ultimate struggle, evidenced by Jesus’ words, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” In his cleverness, he covered over the light that Jesus had always enjoyed. From the first moment of his conception, Jesus knew that he was the Beloved Son of God. Frequently, as at his Baptism and Transfiguration, the Father had assured Jesus of these special prerogatives. Even in the garden, Jesus knew that he was the Beloved Son.”

“Now, that light was covered over. The Father did not hide himself but Satan, by his great intellect, saw how to cover over the Father’s face.”

The Victory of Mutual Love

"This was darkness, for both Jesus and myself. We had only each other. The darkness was complete and total. Our love for each other was the only light that we enjoyed and we remained embraced in our mutual love until the end. At the end, there seemed to be no faith, nor even hope. Especially, there seemed to be not even love for the Father. All that we knew is that we loved one another. Together, we redeemed the human race. Jesus and I destroyed Satan in the very heart of his stronghold. His kingdom was divided and would not stand."

Today

"Today, he still roams the earth looking for those whom he would devour. However, he knows that his days are numbered and that, at the end of time, he will be cast forever into hell, never to have access to the saints. His kingdom is condemned forever."

"I needed to teach this all at once. There is much more to say."

The Book of Truth 7th Messenger, Maria Divine Mercy

"I will salvage 5 billion souls because of this mission"

November 9, 2014 @ 3:20 pm

"My dearly beloved daughter, all I ever wanted to do was to save the souls of God's children. All that My Eternal Father desired was for His children to love Him as He loves them."

"Even when His first-born rejected His Love, My beloved Father drew up His Ten Commandments, to enable man to live by His Rules. Man's desire must always be to serve His Master and to do this he must show love to his brothers and sisters. By observing the Laws of God, he will remain true to Him and become closer to Him. But, by rejecting the Ten Commandments, man puts a great distance between himself and God."

"My Final Mission, to bring man the fruits of his salvation, has yielded many Gifts. I desire now that each of you recites from this day, and every day from now on, Crusade Prayer number (33) and that you keep a copy of the Seal of the Living God close to you. Many people who may not be aware of this Mission may also receive the Protection of the Seal when you pray for them, as you recite this prayer."

“All of God’s children who have the Seal of the Living God will be immune to the troubles, which will come as the Great Tribulation unfolds. I ask that you do this today for I promise you great protection against the persecutors of the Christian Faith and the upheavals, which will be witnessed across the four corners of the earth. I ask that you do not allow fear of any kind to trouble your hearts. While I desire to save the whole world, out of My Mercy, I now declare that I will salvage five billion souls because of this Mission. I declare this to be one of the greatest Mercies that I have bequeathed to God’s children at any one time in the history of the world.”

“Know also, that I will curtail the suffering, which will be inflicted upon humanity by the beast, such is My Mercy. But first, God’s Punishment will be witnessed for this has been foretold, and it is a necessary part of the final purification of man.”

“Trust in Me. Lift your hearts and never fear the evil and wickedness you will witness shortly. Allow joy to fill your souls if you believe in Me. I will save all those for whom you beg My Mercy, through the recital of My Crusade Prayers. The only sin, which cannot be forgiven, is the eternal sin of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit.”

“Today is the day that I solemnly promise to bring humanity the love, peace and joy of My Kingdom through the salvation of five billion souls.”

“I love and cherish you all. There is nothing that I will not do for you, if it is the Will of God. All you must do is ask.”

Your Jesus