In this important commentary, I want to address two intentions that we should never pray for as Christians before God. These two prayer intentions are not immediately intuitive to us but I feel that they are important to address as each of us strives for deeper union with God and His Divine Will.

These are the two “forbidden” prayer intentions:

One, as Christians, we should never pray for the fulfillment of God's Divine Justice in the world; and

Two, as Christians, we should never pray for the salvation of the antichrist.

Part One: Never Pray for Divine Justice

Many years ago, when I was a newly returned Christian to the Catholic faith, I realized that it was very important to me that I pray for things that are aligned with God's Divine Will. I figured that if I prayed for the things that God desired then these intentions would be the best prayers before God Whom I desired to truly love and be faithful to in all I do in my life on earth.

And so, early on in my conversion, I would wonder to myself if we, as Christians, should pray to God for His Divine Justice to be fulfilled on earth. I wondered this, because being Just is an attribute of Our God and all attributes of God are Good.

Well, one day, after having contemplated this for awhile, I decided that it would be alright to pray for God's Divine Justice. Well, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, about two days later, I was watching a FOCUS video on the near-death experience of Sondra Abrahams, and Jesus showed Sondra hell and told her to never pray for His Divine Justice on earth or for Divine Mercy on the damned souls in hell. Because to do so, causes His Holy Wrath to visit the earth sooner and such prayer increases the pain and suffering of damned souls in hell.

So, upon finding out that fact, I know that I must never pray for God to visit the earth with His Holy Wrath. Instead, we must always, always pray for God's Divine Mercy on us. Divine Mercy Is God's Divine Will for us on earth.
Recently, I came across a heavenly message given to Barnabas Nwoye as part of the Most Precious Blood Devotion, where I learned about the Two Fires of God – His Fire of Divine Love and His Fire of Holy Wrath. Christians often think of God as a singular Holy Fire, while theologians throughout the ages have postulated that the same Holy Fire that brings ecstatic joy to the angels and saints in Heaven also causes the burning punishment of hell in the fallen angels and damned souls due to their sins.

However, that is a false theological concept. Heaven revealed to Barnabas that God has reserved to Himself a totally different Holy Fire – the Fire of Merciful Love for His saints in Heaven, while in hell, the devils and damned souls are punished by a wholly different fire of His Holy Wrath for all eternity. And when one contemplates this fact, it does make sense that God Is using two different Holy Fires for Heaven and hell. Why? Because Sacred Scriptures speaks of the great physical and spiritual chasm that exists separating Heaven from hell. Also, at the end of time, at the Final Judgment, when hell is full and closed forever, it makes sense that the Holy Fire used for Divine Justice – God's Holy Wrath – would be contained within hell exclusively and not exist outside of hell somehow connected to Heaven for all eternity.

And so, it is important to always pray for God's Divine Mercy and not His Holy Wrath. I know that some Christians might feel it is “okay” to call upon God's Divine Justice on people—like their enemies—but we are commanded by Our Lord to always pray and to be merciful to those who harm us and wish upon us evil. The real truth is, besides us being sinners as well, Divine Justice is so absolute and final in its exacting punishment whether it happens on earth (as such will happen during the Great Tribulation) or in hell. The loss of God—for whom each of us were created to have God as our primary purpose—is so horrific—it is beyond any physical or mental pain on earth.

Truly, back in 2011, when I was given three days of mystically experiencing the deprivation (loss) of God that the poor souls feel in Purgatory all the time, I was going stir-crazy doing my normal work and routine on earth. I even felt at times the Holy Fire of Purgatory, but it was nothing compared to the loss of God that I felt in my soul. It was the worst pain of my life. All I wanted to do was sit on a stool before the Blessed Sacrament and cry—because it was the only way that I could feel any Real Presence of God.

And that was Purgatory for me. I do not want to experience hell at all.

Also, we have to recognize that even the most evil and villainous person alive is a victim of satan's deceptions. hell was never created for the children of God (mankind), but for the fallen angels (satan and his devils). And truly, the damned souls in hell—who are weaker creatures by God's design—are tortured beyond endurance by satan and his devils for all eternity—because evil has no pity.
And so, to close this brief section, let me explain how calling upon God's Holy Wrath on earth increases the pain and suffering of the damned souls and even satan and his devils. The truth is, every time that satan and his devils tempt us to sin and are successful in causing sin on earth, it increases the punishment of satan and the devils and the damned souls in hell. Just like Jesus has His Mystical Body, satan, his devils, and all the damned souls form a mystical body of evil in hell. And truly, because satan is the instigator and originator of all sin, he carries within himself all the sins ever committed by the devils and damned souls, etc. That is why the second greatest horror of hell is simply being in the presence of satan for all-eternity (first is the loss of God). I read once in a heavenly message where Jesus said that satan is so ugly that no human person living on earth can endure ever looking at him as he truly looks like and not immediately die of fright and shock. So, whenever, God in His Divine Mercy, permits a chosen holy soul to see satan on earth, the vision is always tempered by God's Power. God even does this when evil persons are calling satan and devils into their presence by occult powers. Yes, God's Divine Mercy Is that Great even for His wayward and lost children while still living on earth. God does not will for His children to die immediately on the spot.

Thus, as Christians, we should never pray for God's Divine Justice to visit us on earth. God's Divine Will Is always, always for us to pray for His Divine Mercy. Amen.

Part Two: Never Pray for the salvation of the antichrist

The second intention that Christians should never pray for is for the salvation of the antichrist.

I will tell you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, that about ten years ago, I was contemplating to myself that I should pray for the salvation of the antichrist. I thought to myself, well, if there is ever a human being in need of salvation, it would be the antichrist... And so, I resolved to myself to pray the 12-year prayers of St. Bridget of Sweden for the eternal salvation of the antichrist (because according to the divine promises of the 12-year prayers, you can choose three people outside your family to guarantee their salvation in God). However, when I started to pray the prayers, my guardian angel put so many “roadblocks” to stop me from being able to pray them successfully each day... I finally gave up, because I realized that Heaven did not want me to pray for the antichrist. Then, over the years, I have read heavenly messages where Jesus would simply say do not pray for the antichrist—Jesus might have mentioned this in the Book of Truth to 7th Messenger, Maria Divine Mercy, but I do not recall exactly whose messages I have read this in).

However, as blog followers of MaryRefugeOfHolyLove know, I like to ponder things and so, for the past year, the Holy Spirit has been leading me down a train of thought regarding the antichrist. And so, I have been studying and contemplating many matters related to the antichrist. I do not claim perfect discernment. However, in this commentary, I am going to explain briefly why we must not pray for the salvation of the antichrist, which is some of the fruits of my labor this past year.

When Our Lord, Jesus Christ, died on the Cross for the salvation of the world, He died to save all the children of God from hell. Jesus bore upon Himself all the sins of mankind—all the children of God—and presented Himself to God the Father—as a Living Sacrifice in atonement for our sins that merit eternal damnation—eternal separation from God. By Jesus' Sacrifice, the Gates of Heaven were once again opened to mankind. Thus, every child of God who asks for forgiveness of all his or her sins before God the Father by accepting the Atoning Sacrifice of His Son, Jesus, on the Cross, will receive in exchange Divine Mercy (Heaven) instead of Divine Justice (hell).

Now, I need to explain a very important distinction here. All children of God (mankind) have a soul. The soul is the essence of who you are as a human person. Your soul comes directly from God and is given to you at the moment of conception. Your soul is eternal and is the part of you that most resembles the Living Spirit of God. It is because you have a soul that you are counted to be part of God's Family. The whole purpose of Creation is that God the Father desired to have a human family joined to Him forever in Heaven.

Your soul is precious, special, unique, and irreplaceable. There will never be another soul like you in God's Family. You are that treasured and loved by God. It is important that you take care of your soul while living on earth, because it can be destroyed by unrepentant grave sin. That leads to the loss of your soul in hell.

So, all children of God have a soul. Having a soul is the definition of what makes you a human person to God.

Now, please understand, when Jesus died on the Cross, His Sacred Passion and Death only atoned for the sins of mankind—those conceived with souls. Jesus did not die to save satan and his fallen angels (devils) from hell. satan and all devils are not redeemed by the Cross.

In addition, Jesus did not die to save demon incarnates from hell. All demon incarnates are not redeemed by the Cross.

Now, please understand, the antichrist is a demon incarnate. Demon incarnates do not have souls. Thus, the antichrist has no soul. The antichrist is not a child of God.
That is why you should not pray for the salvation of the antichrist. The antichrist is a creature that is not redeemed by Jesus at the Cross. The antichrist is not part of the Family of God.

Now, I know many people will be wondering to themselves, what is a demon incarnate? So, let me take a brief moment to explain this. Here is the relevant passage from Sacred Scripture:

Book of Genesis, Chapter 6

Origin of the Nephilim

1 When human beings began to grow numerous on the earth and daughters were born to them, 2 the sons of God saw how beautiful the daughters of human beings were, and so they took for their wives whomever they pleased. 3 Then the LORD said: My spirit shall not remain in human beings forever, because they are only flesh. Their days shall comprise one hundred and twenty years. 4 The Nephilim appeared on earth in those days, as well as later, after the sons of God had intercourse with the daughters of human beings, who bore them sons. They were the heroes of old, the men of renown.

Called the Nephilim during the era before the Great Flood of Noah, these giants were the result of fallen angels (devils) commingling with human females. The Nephilim are demon incarnates which are highly intelligent and mighty in physical strength. Demon incarnates are totally evil-willed—being the spawn of satan—and are a type of “advanced animal-like” creature that wholly serve satan. By nature, they may look like a human person, but they are not blessed by God in any way. Thus, demon incarnates lack a soul because they are not children of God and not part of God's Family. They are not redeemed by the Cross of Jesus and are totally destined to eternity in hell.

Now, people may wonder how a fallen angelic being can mate with a human female? The answer is very simple. When all the angels were created by God at the origin of Creation, God blessed all the angels with various spiritual gifts. These are spiritual gifts that the fallen angels continued to possess, because once God gives a gift to a creature of His, He does not take the gift back. And so, part of those angelic gifts were the ability to shape-shift, to take physical human form, and healing powers. All of these angelic gifts have been manipulated by satan and his devils for the service of evil. Thus, early on in salvation history, soon after the Fall of Adam and Eve and the population of Cain's children throughout the earth, satan figured out a way to co-breed with human females to create giants—the demon incarnates mentioned in Sacred Scripture.

In the Genesis passage, the Holy Bible also speaks about the Nephilim appearing on the earth after the Great Flood of Noah. This is also true, as satan did not waste his time in starting again to create demon incarnates, particularly, once the Tower of Babel happened, and mankind was forced to spread out on the face of the earth. That is why Sacred Scripture will speak about various giants under different tribal names, although most people do not understand that these giants are demon incarnates—a totally different creature from humanity and how evil-willed they are. For example, there is the story of David and the giant, Goliath, who was a demon incarnate, in the Holy Bible.

Also, satan populated the Promised Land with many giants and fallen human people who lived with the giants wrecking havoc upon all who came in contact with them. Throughout the ancient times, the people of Israel had to deal with giants and such evil human people. That is why the Old Testament emphasized so much maintaining a pure genetic bloodline for the people of Israel, so the future Messiah could be born of the House of David. Because God did want a repeat of what happened before the Great Flood when He had to wipe out most of those living on earth (except for Noah and his family), because human flesh became so corrupted—those with pure human DNA and had a soul counting them as a children of God were few and far between. That is also why, in the Old Testament, God would command the Israelites to put to death their enemies so many times after the various battles, because oftentimes, their enemies would have corrupted DNA and were no longer fully human having commingled with devils and having produced giants. Also, people may not realize this, but the reason that ancient Israelites wandered the desert for 40 years after Moses led them out of Egypt, is because the majority refused to fight the various giants that had settled in the Promised Land. The majority of Israel were frightened of these fearful monsters, which satan had purposed populated the Promised Land with as satan knew that God would lead His Family back to this land which has been blessed for His People since the time of Adam and Eve.

Now, people may wonder, if satan was able to populate the ancient world with giants and demon incarnates so much, why do we not see them prevalent around the world today? The answer is actually complex, which I am going to reserve for future writings on the antichrist. But for now, I am going to give the short answer—we have the “Restrainer” in place which has kept the world population from being overrun by demon incarnates and has prevented the antichrist from assuming power in the End Times. Here is the relevant passage from Sacred Scripture:

2 Thessalonians, Chapter 2
Christ and the Lawless One

3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For unless the apostasy comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one doomed to perdition, 4 who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god and object of worship, so as to seat himself in the temple of God, claiming that he is a god—5 do you not recall that while I was still with you I told you these things? 6 And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his time. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. But the one who restrains is to do so only for the present, until he is removed from the scene. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord [Jesus] will kill with the breath of his mouth and render powerless by the manifestation of his coming, 9 the one whose coming springs from the power of Satan in every mighty deed and in signs and wonders that lie...

* * *

In this passage from the 2nd Letter of Thessalonians, the “lawless one” is the antichrist and the “Restrainer” is Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Eucharist. It is the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament in His Holy Mother Church for the past two thousand years that has kept the antichrist or any other demon incarnates from gaining world dominance. However, once the “Restrainer” is “removed from the scene”—the Real Presence of the Most Holy Eucharist is removed from the Catholic Church (the abomination of desolation)—the antichrist who is a demon incarnate and spawn of satan will be able to act fully in the End Times manifesting all of satan's powers against the People of God in the Great Tribulation on earth. This aligns with Our Lord's Holy Words in the Book of Truth given to 7th messenger, Maria Divine Mercy, where Jesus confirms that the antichrist will not enter His Holy Catholic Church until His Presence is removed completely from the Consecration of the Holy Mass and the abomination of desolation happens.

And so, I know that I gave a lot of information in this section, that will give people much to think about. However, I hope that I explained adequately enough why Christians must not pray for the salvation of the antichrist. The antichrist is a demon incarnate who is beyond redemption from the Holy Death of Our Lord on the Cross. The antichrist has no soul and is not part of the Family of God.

Alright, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, I love you all.

God bless,
—a soul

The Warning – Illumination of Conscience – The Suffering of Purgatory as Penance for Sin – By a soul
My dear child, when my Son grants special favours, upon God’s children, this means then that there is a responsibility expected on the part of the recipient. For every Blessing, dear children, you receive from my Son, you must always give thanks to God. When my Son presents heavenly Graces upon a soul, much is expected of that person. Each soul must then live their lives according to what they have been taught by my Son.

My Son makes His Presence felt when He is called upon. The more open the soul is to His Love, the more he or she will become closer to His Sacred Heart. However, when a soul exalts himself before my Son, when requesting His help, nothing will yield from Him. God loves the humble souls. He lavishes great Graces upon them. The more Graces they receive, the more of Him will be Present within them. Then, as His Presence is made known, that same soul will be the subject of hatred. The devil is drawn to souls who are in the Light of God. He will then use every means to humiliate the chosen soul and usually does this by deceiving the weak soul he uses, to inflict pain and suffering on the humble soul.

Sadly, many people who love me, the Mother of God, come to me begging me to assist them in destroying other souls. These souls, they tell me, are deserving of God’s punishment. When they ask for my Son to pass judgment on such souls, because of the hatred, which lies in their hearts, their prayers will never be heard. How can you love me, adore my Son and pledge your allegiance to the Truth when you hate others? Oh how cunning is the evil one when he devours holy souls, who have allowed pride to distract them. Once pride grips a soul, it immediately loses its light. The darker it becomes the further away it removes itself from the Light of God.

When you ask me to intervene, on your behalf, with my Son, you must always come to me with the fullness of love in your heart. You must never curse another when you ask for God’s Blessings, for this is abhorrent to Him. Hatred plays no role in Heaven.

Come to me, dear children, only with love in your hearts for your enemies, and all your prayers will be answered according to God’s Holy Will.

Your beloved Mother
MOTHER OF SALVATION

People don’t know what their soul is – the answer is simple
Saturday, June 25th, 2011 @ 01:30

My dearly beloved daughter, your voice, while being heard, finally, by My sacred servants all over the world, falls silently in those quarters oblivious to the Existence of God the Almighty Father.

You may say, they don’t listen, but they cannot listen if they don’t hear. Be brave now, talk to as many as you can. Ask people to publish the news of My Word. Call them. Ask them. Explain that they must read My Messages before they dismiss them. For it will only be when they feel the strength that comes from My Divine Lips, when My Spirit will attract their spirit, that they will finally understand that it is I Who is communicating to the world.

I Am sad, My daughter, because of the deep barricades and divides, which today block out every attempt by My Blessed Mother and I, her precious Son, to speak through visionaries, to the world. In the past humility was a little more prevalent. Today, this important trait has disappeared. In its place is a world where everything that exudes human intelligence, allure, or physical appeal is accepted as a priority in people’s lives. Their spirituality has died. They are, My daughter, merely empty shells. Shells that when cracked are nothing. Substance of soul is what My children must strive for. This is difficult for many people and especially those whose minds are full of human wisdom where little space is left for spiritual wisdom.

Such is the lack of spirituality, fuelled by the power of Satan, that people have fallen prey to, leave open their souls to commit sin. A lack of spirituality, or belief in God, renders a soul to contamination by the deceiver. The king of deceit leads souls in the belief that only the body and mind alone are interwoven to become whole. Sadly, you cannot be whole without your soul.

What is your soul?

Many people don’t know what their soul is. What it feels like, or how to recognise it. Is it your mind, your conscience? The answer is simple. Your soul is you. It is who you are, your conscience, your beliefs, your understanding, whether this represents the Truth, for what it is, or the truth for what you want to believe it is. It is not a separate part of you, dear children, something that belongs to another world. It is present within each human being.

Your soul can be looked after by following My Teachings. It can be neglected through sin, which is very difficult to avoid, but it can be replenished by confessing or expressing remorse and starting out again. Or it can be destroyed. Some deliberately destroy their soul by sinning, for the pleasures or vices of this world, in the full-knowledge of what they are doing. Others deny they have a soul. Their arrogance convinces them that they know all. That life begins and ends on this Earth.

And then there are those young souls who, through no fault of their own, were reared by parents in times of plenty where they wanted for nothing in the materialistic sense. Their religion is based on material gain. By striving for more stimulus, their ambition continues to increase until, eventually, there is nothing else they can strive for until death faces them. Then they are lost. Puzzled. Confused. With a deep, sickening feeling inside they know something is wrong. The soul is telling them, but they don’t know how to respond. They are the ones you need to save.

I call on all of My followers everywhere to help Me save all of My poor children. I know I Am asking for an extraordinary act of generosity on your part. It is a huge responsibility. But by obeying My Most Holy Will you will help Me save much of the world from the grip of Satan and the terror he wields.

Go forth now, My followers, all of you and spread My Word to a jaded, misguided and disillusioned world. My graces will pour forth over each of you, for even just one conversion – one soul that can escape the horror of Hell.

Your Divine Redeemer
Saviour of all Mankind

JESUS CHRIST
