Feast of Mary, Our Lady of the Holy Rosary

Blessings dearest ones,

In this blog post, I would like to share an excerpt of a love-letter written to a beloved sister in Christ, as I believe my words might prove fruitful to a lot of people. Many people wonder why they were created by Almighty God. It is the perennial teaching of Holy Mother Church that because 1/3 of the angels fell into evil, mankind was created to fill in the empty spots of the heavenly hierarchy. That is a logical answer and yet, on a deeply spiritual, emotional, and personal level, it is very dissatisfying to think of the creation of mankind as an "afterthought" of God that might have never taken place.

Beloved ones, I want you to know that you were not an afterthought of Almighty God. Contrary to the perennial teaching of Holy Mother Church, you have always been a planned soul from all eternity. How do I, "a soul", know this fact? Well, sometimes, I am blessed to have private conversations with Our Lord. And during one particularly powerful encounter with the Most Holy Trinity, God revealed to me something very profound. God shared with me some aspects of what the Divine Plan would have looked like if Creation had not fallen into sin. And from this private revelation, I realized how very special every human person is to God and that the creation of mankind has always been the intention of Almighty God as part of His Divine Plan.

So, I want you to rejoice over how much God loves you, now and always has and always will.

Finally, I hope that you appreciate my thoughts in this blog post. I am not a trained theologian. But, these thoughts have come from hundreds of hours of discerning and pondering heavenly messages. And I believe my words more accurately answer the fundamental question of every yearning human heart, who am I to God? Why did God create me? I answer the question of the creation of mankind not from the standpoint of a fallen state, brokenness, and sin, but from the standpoint of Divine Love, grace, and an eternal purpose. God bless you as you consider this writing.

I love you,
A Soul

Many people wonder why God created them. You are not alone and I wondered this myself, too. In this love-letter, I will tell you the conclusions that I have come to.

In the Catechism, it teaches that individually, we were created to know, love, and serve the Lord, and that collectively, mankind was created because God desired a human family. This is basic theology 101.

Now, I will give you my advanced theological thoughts on this.

Before Creation, the Lord desired to create a Woman to complement the Holy Trinity. A perfect Daughter, Spouse, and Mother. This Woman is the Holy Mother Mary. And she was to be the most perfect creature. Like God in all ways and all manners, so perfect that she could be mistaken for being divine, except she is truly a creature and inferior to God. This is because God is Eternal, while Mary would have an origin in time. As mighty as God is, it is logically impossible for God to create another "God" like Himself, because inherently that person would have an origin and by default be inferior as a created being.

But Mary is as close as being like God as God willed a creature to ever be, now and forever. She is Perfect in all grace of God. God did not hold back anything when creating the perfect Daughter, Spouse, and Mother. And because God does not create redundancies in the creatures that He makes -- everyone being perfectly unique in design and mission -- there will be no other creature created as perfectly full in grace like Mary. She is like God and a "super human" totally greater than all the rest of mankind combined, and a "super creature" even greater than all the angels.

This then begs the question, why did God create the rest of us? If God has the most perfect Creature in Mary who can perfectly fulfill the role of Daughter, Spouse, Mother for the Holy Trinity, what is the purpose in creating mankind and the angels? God could have stopped in just creating Mary, no? When you have something so perfect in one being, why create lesser, inferior creatures?

When you think about it, it certainly can create an identity crisis, as no one will ever live up to the perfection of Mary. Why inferior me?

The answer, my dear sister, lies in love. Love is the reason for all of Creation.

As perfect as Mary is to and for God, her love for God had to be tested, just like the rest of us are tested in our love for God. God desires creatures that truly and freely love Him, not slaves. And Mary was to be no different than the rest of us. She was to have free will and a chance to choose union with God or not.

My dear sister, all of Creation came into being to serve the first purpose of providing the opportunity for the Blessed Virgin Mary to be freely tested in her great love of God. All of mankind has been created not only for the Divine Son but also to know, love, and serve the Daughter, Spouse, and Mother of the Holy Trinity.

Truly, the creation of the rest of mankind and the angels has been necessary for the sanctification of holy Mary and the central role that she has in the Divine Plan and as Queen of Heaven and earth. Her greatness in glory commanded the necessity of all of mankind and all the angels so her love could be fully demonstrated to God and reciprocated by Him. We exist because of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Moreover, each of us are a unique and precious gift from God to His Queen. Every human person and every angel carries within himself a chief uniqueness -- an attribute of the character of God -- that is irreplaceable and a singular good that no other being has in Creation. That is why it is a tragedy when 1/3 of the angels and when a human soul is lost. We are meant to be each a precious jewel showcased in the crown and heart of the Queen who truly loves each of us as her children, mankind and the angels. Truly, when holy Mary looks at all of us, collectively, she witnesses the totality of the love of the Creator for her. So those lost brings deep sorrow to not only God but to Mary, who witnesses something of perfect beauty of God die, never to be replaced in the Divine Heart or the Divine Plan. Meanwhile, those who thrive by making it to Heaven, are roses of singular beauty given by the Divine Son to His Mother -- gifts of love from His Heart to console and delight in for all eternity.

So, dear sister, you ask me why you were created? You are a diamond in the rough being chiseled by sufferings and crosses to be a perfected jewel in the crown of Mary. You are a beautiful rose created for the delight of God and Mary. You are a precious offering -- a unique gift of love -- from God to His Queen.

Never think that you are insignificant or unimportant. You mean everything to God because by your very creation, you gave God His perfect Daughter, Spouse, and Mother. And you mean everything to holy Mary, because by your very creation, you gave her, her sanctification in God. You are important, special, unique, and irreplaceable. Always treasure who you are. Heaven does.

God bless,
A Soul

Come Holy Spirit and St. Michael with protection as the Blessed Mother speaks:

My love, My beautiful one and all My most beloved children that My God and yours gave to Me as He died on the cross. Yes, My love, it was I your Mother speaking to you as you woke up this morning. I was speaking with all the love and grace that you were receiving when you went through your honeymoon phase in your spiritual life when you were reborn anew from your spiritual Mother from My womb into My spiritual world and were taken away from the physical world to start working for your God and Mine.

I ask all My children to give their free will to Me, their real spiritual Mother so I can take you in and through Me to My Son who was born in My womb on earth. Yes, I was chosen to be the Mother of all the children of the earth when God the Father made them within Himself at the beginning of the world. Then God put each of His beloved children in the womb of their mother on earth at the time He needed them to fulfill the mission He had for them in their life at the time they were needed to fulfill their piece of the puzzle in His creation. All of God's children are needed to fulfill the plan of creation from the beginning to the end of time. All of God's children knew each other from the beginning to the end of time. They were all made within God the Father in the beginning to be used for a special job in the world at a certain time in the history of the world.

My children do not think that God loves any one of you more or less than the other. You are all needed from the greatest to the least of you as far as the world sees it. In the same way, no one is better or worse than the other in the eyes of their God and Mine, your spiritual Mother. Do not look down or condemn any of your brothers and sisters; in My God's and your God's eyes, you are all created in His likeness and image. You "each" are a different part of His likeness and image. It takes all of the people of the world that ever was or ever will be to fulfill the full picture of our God. Jesus, My beloved Son was the only one to be made into God the Father's full image, who God asked to give up His life for all of us to save our souls and suffer all the crosses of all of us so we would have the strength to carry our little cross when it was our time to help Jesus carry them.

My children, you are all just little pieces of the whole puzzle that make up the whole picture of My Son, Jesus. You are now living in the end of this era of time and the remnant children who said 'yes' to their role in life are carrying all My children who do not want to say 'yes' to God's role for them in their life. These are the children who are living the Warning before the Warning for all those listening. The time has now come when My suffering servants will find peace and joy and the ones who are not listening to their God will continue to suffer even more each day. My remnant children will be there to carry them through their suffering with all of Heaven to the final end of this era of time and the one thousand years of peace when satan and all his demons will be locked in hell except for a short time after the thousand years of time when they will be unleashed again and then it will be the final end of the world as is spoken of in Revelations. Your loving Mother with all Her spiritual children to be within Her as their real spiritual Mother. Love, Mom.
